PROGRAM ITINERARY

DAY 1

FROM PRAGUE TO BUDAPEST

Thu. Apr 4, 2024

- Check out of the hotel.
- Transfer to the Prague Train Station.
- Enjoy the beautiful views as you embark on a comfortable train ride to Budapest.
- Arrive in Budapest where you will be welcomed by your local guide.
- Drive to the top of Castle Hill, an ideal and spectacular spot to get your Budapest bearings. We'll look down on the beauty of the city and see how the Danube river separates the hilly Buda area from the flat lands of Pest. Castle Hill, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is named after Buda Castle, which was built in the 13th century and now hosts the Hungarian National Gallery and other major cultural institutions. We'll wander Castle Hill's cobblestoned streets and appreciate the remarkable rebuilding of this area, which was reduced to rubble after World War Two.
- Enjoy the panoramic views of Budapest from the top of the Fisherman's Bastion.
- Take a bus tour along stylish Andrassy Avenue with its palaces and mansions. Home in the 19th century to aristocrats and bankers, it is now also a chic street of designer stores, upscale boutiques, and the glorious State Opera House. We'll jump off the bus at Heroes' Square to see the iconic statues commemorating one thousand years of Magyar (Hungarian) tribes, leaders, and kings.
- Check into the hotel.
- Evening recommendation:
 - Attend a live performance at the Hungarian State Opera House, one of the world's great homes of music. Built in 1875 by Emperor Franz Joseph I, when the Austria-Hungary Empire was at its political and cultural peak, it is one of the architectural masterpieces of Budapest and served as home to maestros like Franz Liszt and Gustav Mahler.

 Overnight: Budapest

DAY 3

SHABBAT IN BUDAPEST

Sat. Apr 6, 2024

- Walking tour of Budapest:
 - Enjoy the lawns, walkways, and architecture of Liberty Square. We'll also see that the square provides important insights into the transformations and turmoil of recent Hungarian history and politics.
 - Walk by the Hungarian Parliament.
 - See The Shoes on the Danube, a moving, sparse memorial to honor the Jews who were massacred by Fascist Hungarian militia belonging to the Arrow Cross Party in Budapest during the Second World War.
- Is Hungary turning its back on democracy and returning to authoritarianism? Find out during this presentation by Gabor Gyori, senior political analyst at the Hungarian thinktank Policy Solutions. We'll also hear how the rise of Christian nationalist politicians, such as Viktor Orban, Hungary's prime minister and a proponent of "illiberal democracy," affects Hungary's Jews, the country and, indeed, Europe.
- Afternoon at leisure to explore the sites and scenes of Budapest on your own, including:
 - The Széchenyi Bathhouse and the Gellert Bathhouse. Relax and unwind as you bathe in the city's famous mineral-rich waters.
 - Fashionable Vaci Street. Voted one of the world's best pedestrian streets, it combines elegant architecture and public art with a vast number of restaurants, boutiques, and cafés.
 - Margaret Island, a green oasis in the middle of the Danube. This lovely park has gardens, historic sites, and attractions, including a water park and swimming complexes.
 - City Park (Varosliget) is another great open space. It is a square kilometer of green and gardens as well as museums, galleries, a zoo, a circus, and Vajdahunyad Castle. The lake is another local favorite, especially with rowers in the summer and ice skaters in the winter.
 - The Nagycsarnok (Great Market Hall), Budapest's largest food market. Local foods, spices, and wines are downstairs, while upstairs you'll find traditional Hungarian costumes and crafts.
- Enjoy Havdalah on the boat.
- The Blue Danube: Enjoy the beauty of Budapest on a farewell dinner cruise on the Danube.
