YOUR JOURNEY

J² crafts journeys of inspiration, education, and Jewish connections to Israel and worldwide. We are guided by a simple but powerful concept: No two trips are the same; each experience should be personal, meaningful, and backed by superb service. Travel is not just about the places you visit, but the connections you make along the way.

Once you have registered for the trip, you can also register for the extension. Click here for details.

Please note that registration is currently closed and the trip is fully subscribed. We encourage you to register yourself to the waiting list by clicking here. Should a spot open up you will be contacted by a customer care representative in order to complete your registration.

PROGRAM ITINERARY

DAY 1

ON OUR WAY

Sun. Jun 29, 2025

- Depart the US.

 Overnight: Flight

DAY 2

THE START OF A SPECIAL JOURNEY

Mon. Jun 30, 2025

- Arrive at Berlin International Airport and transfer to your hotel.
- Check into the hotel.
- Meet your J² Expert Educator who will accompany you on this Jewish journey of education and inspiration.
- Introductory tour of Berlin including stops at:
 - The Brandenburg Gate, Berlin's best-known landmark, now stands as a symbol of the city's reunification.
 - The Bundestag: Explore Germany's traumatic political past and prosperous present as we stop in front of the German Federal Parliament.
 - The Monument to the Murdered Jews of Europe. Designed by architect Peter Eisenman, this undulating field of reflection with thousands of concrete dark gray slabs forms a gentle wave, ankle-high in some places, designed to give visitors a sense of groundlessness and loss of orientation.

- The East Side Gallery: The years 1989-1990 were miraculous as the Berlin Wall came down, the Cold War ended, and West and East German reunified. See how artists reacted to those remarkable days at the East Side Gallery, and how today, this also mirrors the strong ties between Germany and Israel.
- Enjoy a welcome dinner and orientation with your J² Expert Educator.

 Overnight: Berlin  Meals: Dinner

DAY 3

JEWISH LIFE IN BERLIN

Tue. Jul 1, 2025

- Exploring German-Jewish Identity: A conversation with Dr. Sandra Anusiewicz-Baer. We'll also discuss anti-Semitism and anti-Zionism today in Berlin and Germany.
- Explore the social, political, and cultural history of Germany's Jews – from their 4th-century arrival until today – at the Jewish Museum Berlin, Europe's largest Jewish museum. The tragedy of the Holocaust is integrated into its exhibitions and its extraordinary architecture. We'll see how Daniel Libeskind's design – with its zigzagging lines and concrete "voids" – evokes a sense of unease and absence that, along with their many achievements, is part of the German-Jewish story.
- Tour the Jewish Quarter and see the following sites:
 - Hackescher Market.
 - View of the New Synagogue and Centrum Judaicum.
 - The Jewish Cemetery.

- We'll stop outside the home of Rabbi Regina Jonas, the first woman to be ordained as a rabbi.
- We'll also visit two important reminders of German resistance to the Holocaust. The Museum of Otto Weidt's Workshop for the Blind honors the man who risked his life during World War Two to hide and protect Jewish workers in his broom and brush workshop. The Rosenstrasse Sculpture commemorates the successful 1943 protests against Nazi plans to deport the last remaining Jews from Berlin. The protest was led by non-Jewish women seeking to protect their Jewish spouses from persecution.

 Overnight: Berlin  Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4

A PASSAGE THROUGH TIME

Wed. Jul 2, 2025

- See the Places of Remembrance, perhaps the most controversial of Holocaust memorials. Hung, seemingly randomly, on street lampposts in the Bavarian Quarter are 80 signs that highlight anti-Jewish laws and regulations established by the Nazis. These signs push passersby to contemplate the almost-forgotten history of this neighborhood, which was once home to prominent Jewish intellectuals, including Albert Einstein and Hannah Arendt.
- Bridge of Spies: We'll stop at Glienicke Bridge where, during the Cold War, spy and political prisoner swaps took place. This border and checkpoint between East and West Germany has been featured in many books and movies, including Steven Spielberg's Bridge of Spies.

In 1986, the Soviet Jewish dissident Anatoly (Natan) Sharansky walked over this bridge to freedom.

- Lunch at a local restaurant.
- Visit the Villa in Wannsee, site of the infamous "Final Solution" conference.
- Visit to Gleis 17 (Track 17), the remains of the main deportation center for Berlin Jews during the Holocaust, located in the affluent neighborhood of Grunewald.
- Return to Berlin.
- Being Young, Jewish, and German: Dialogue with Rebecca Blady, the Executive Director, and Jeremy Borovitz, the Senior Jewish Educator, of Hillel Deutschland – Germany.

 Overnight: Berlin  Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 5

FROM BERLIN TO WARSAW

Thu. Jul 3, 2025

- Load luggage to the luggage truck.
- Check out of the hotel.
- Depart Berlin on a train to Warsaw.
- Welcome to Warsaw and meet your local guide.
- Visit the Gensha Cemetery, one of the largest Jewish cemeteries in the world. Revive the names on the unique tombstones of famous Jewish leaders, artists, rabbis, and intellectuals.
- Check into the hotel.
- Dinner and panel discussion with Monika Elliot, Program Director of JDC, and Magda Dorosz, Director of Hillel Warsaw.

 Overnight: Warsaw  Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 6

LIFE IN A SHTETL AND ITS TRAGIC END

Fri. Jul 4, 2025

- Take a guided visit to the Warsaw Ghetto. At Mila 18, we will commemorate the doomed uprising and at Umschlagplatz, the holding area before transportation to the Treblinka death camp.
- Drive north of Warsaw to Treblinka.
- Packed lunch en route.
- For many years, the world knew little about Treblinka. This extermination camp was leveled completely by the Nazis and very few inmates survived to give witness. However, it is now understood that this was one of largest killing centers of the Holocaust. Our focus will be on Treblinka as a place of Jewish heroism and not just of death. The educator Janusz Korczak was killed here because he refused to abandon the children from the orphanage he ran. We will also recall the prisoner revolt and escape attempt of May 2, 1943.
- Return to the hotel to refresh before Shabbat.
- Kabbalat Shabbat services at a local synagogue, followed by dinner with members of the community.

 Overnight: Warsaw  Meals: Breakfast, Boxed Lunch, Dinner

DAY 7

THE WORLD THAT WAS & THE WORLD THAT IS

Sat. Jul 5, 2025

- Optional Shabbat services at the Nozyk Synagogue, the last remaining pre-Holocaust synagogue in Warsaw.
- Morning at leisure.
- Lunch at a local restaurant.
- Visit the POLIN Museum of the History of Polish Jews, located in the center of what once was the Warsaw Ghetto.
- Tour through Warsaw's Old Town. Established in the 13th century and destroyed by the German army during WWII, it was meticulously rebuilt using the original stones.
- Attend a concert at Sala Koncertowa Fryderyk, a charming concert hall that celebrates the legacy of Fryderyk Chopin, offering intimate performances of classical music in an elegant 19th-century setting. It's the perfect spot to experience world-class music in a refined atmosphere.
- Devote time to mark the end of Shabbat with a group havdalah.
- Evening at leisure.

 Overnight: Warsaw  Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 8

RECREATING MEMORY

Sun. Jul 6, 2025

- Load luggage to the luggage truck.
- Check out of the hotel.
- Depart Warsaw on a train to Krakow.
- Lunch on own.

- Explore the Kazimierz Jewish Quarter. Once the heart of Jewish life in Krakow for 500 years, the quarter is now one of the city's most attractive and Bohemian areas. Our tour will include:
 - The Altshul. Built in the 15th century, this is the oldest synagogue still standing in Poland.
 - The Rema Synagogue, named after Rabbi Moses Isserles (the "Rema"), a great Talmudic scholar and codifier of Jewish law. It is one of the few synagogues in Krakow that is still active today.
 - The Rema Cemetery, where many renowned rabbis, including the Rema himself, are buried.
 - The Tempel Synagogue. No longer used as a synagogue, it instead hosts artistic events and is a key venue in the revival of Jewish culture in the city.
- Visit the Galicia Jewish Museum.
- Check into the hotel.
- Evening at leisure.

 Overnight: Krakow  Meals: Breakfast

DAY 9

THE DESTRUCTION OF EUROPEAN JEWRY

Mon. Jul 7, 2025

- Depart the hotel and drive to the Auschwitz–Birkenau complex, the largest of the Nazi concentration and extermination centers. Over 1.1 million people lost their lives in the Auschwitz camps.
- Visit the first camp built at Auschwitz, a mass concentration camp. Here, we'll visit the Auschwitz museum which contains powerful artifacts and haunting footage of the lives and deaths of prisoners.

- We will then make the short drive to the Auschwitz II death camp, also known as Birkenau. Largely untouched since the war, it provides intimate insights into the tragedy of the Holocaust. We'll reflect here on the personal stories of some of the Jews held and killed here and read accounts from survivors.
- Group lunch, en route.
- Continue to the Oswiecim Synagogue which stood as a silent witness to the Holocaust.
- Return to the hotel.
- At the Krakow Jewish Community Center, we'll talk with JCC director Jonathan Ornstein as well as a Holocaust survivor and members of the local community over dinner.

 Overnight: Krakow  Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 10

LAYERED MEMORIES AND THE PATH THAT BINDS THEM

Tue. Jul 8, 2025

- Visit the Wawel Royal Castle. This palace was the magnificent home of Poland's kings and rulers from 1038-1536 and is a key symbol of the nation's culture and independence. Highlights of the visit will include the stunning grounds and cathedral.
- Take a walk through Krakow Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, where historic charm meets vibrant culture. Stroll along its cobblestone streets, admire stunning medieval architecture, and explore the lively Main Market Square, home to iconic landmarks like St. Mary's Basilica and the Cloth Hall.

- Experience authentic Krakow cuisines and culture on a fun tasting tour.
- Remainder of afternoon at leisure.
- Festive farewell dinner at a local restaurant.

🌙 Overnight: Krakow 🍴 Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 11

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

Wed. Jul 9, 2025

- Check out of the hotel.
- Transfer to the airport for your return flight to the US.

🍴 Meals: Breakfast

THE EXPERT

YISHAY SHAVIT

Yishay was born on a kibbutz in Northern Israel. In 2000, he moved to Jerusalem, fell in love with the city, and hasn't looked back. Yishay, a history and hiking lover, was first introduced to the world of guiding at the age of 15, in his youth movement. After serving in the IDF, he started guiding in various museums, the Knesset (Israel's parliament), and the Supreme Court. In 2007 he received a formal guiding education. The areas of his expertise are history, politics, and theology connected to Jerusalem. Yishay holds a bachelor's degree in History and a master's degree in Jewish History from Hebrew University, focusing on Indian Jewry and contemporary Jewry. Yishay speaks fluent Hebrew and English and a little bit of Hindi. When not guiding, he enjoys spending time with his wife Noa and their two sons – Yotam and Assaf.
